PUNTS.

"Ed" Harrelt just arrived hours ago. He is a fine sailing man all summer. Without any practice he did well.

The Harrogate players will please attend that Purseman was not ill-used. He was a very good sailor. The spectators did not interfere with him. He was a very good sailor. He did not keep that of "Joe Wright's" fisherman.

Charles looked after Lisle in an able manner. He also took Keat or Keat's place. He was a very good sailor. "Father" Bone worked over time. He looked hard and held his Lead.

"Chasler" Elliott played a great game. He was a very good sailor. The team well looked.

Charles looked after Lisle in an able manner. He was a very good sailor. He did not keep that of "Joe Wright's" fisherman. He gave Brilly his hand out.

"Bob" Harrelt from Channahon. "Bob" Harrelt of last year's R. M. C. played on the Argonaut wing line.

Grassie's scrimmage did good work. He was a very good sailor. He was reliable.

McDonald's line rushes were features of the game.
