

ST. PATRICKS SURPRISED TORONTO ROWING CLUB, AND DEFEATED THEM 10-2 SATURDAY

Irishmen's Win Hands the O. R. F. U. Championship to the Hamilton Rowing Club.

Toronto Team Put Up Poor Exhibition, While St. Patrick's Played Brilliant Football—Contest Was Played on a Snow-covered Gridiron—Saints Deserve Credit For Only Ottawa Win.

On a gridiron covered with snow and ice, and the temperature below freezing, what seemed to be an impossible feat was accomplished on Saturday when St. Patrick's defeated Toronto Rowing Club 10-2 in the O. R. F. U. championship game. The game was played on a snow-covered gridiron at the Hamilton Rowing Club.

The game was won by the hosts, but because the condition of the gridiron was so poor, the contest was not a very brilliant one. St. Patrick's played a very good game, but Toronto's play was so poor that the result was not surprising.

On Saturday, the game was played on a snow-covered gridiron at the Hamilton Rowing Club. The game was won by the hosts, but because the condition of the gridiron was so poor, the contest was not a very brilliant one.

On Saturday, the game was played on a snow-covered gridiron at the Hamilton Rowing Club. The game was won by the hosts, but because the condition of the gridiron was so poor, the contest was not a very brilliant one.

On Saturday, the game was played on a snow-covered gridiron at the Hamilton Rowing Club. The game was won by the hosts, but because the condition of the gridiron was so poor, the contest was not a very brilliant one.

On Saturday, the game was played on a snow-covered gridiron at the Hamilton Rowing Club. The game was won by the hosts, but because the condition of the gridiron was so poor, the contest was not a very brilliant one.

On Saturday, the game was played on a snow-covered gridiron at the Hamilton Rowing Club. The game was won by the hosts, but because the condition of the gridiron was so poor, the contest was not a very brilliant one.

Jack Williams Insulted and the Game Protested by the Torontonians

A sample of poor sportsmanship on the part of a Toronto team was witnessed at the Windsor Road on Saturday night. Jack Williams, captain of the Toronto team, was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians. Williams was insulted and the game protested by the Torontonians.

OTTAWA SECONDS MANAGED TO BEAT OUT BROCKVILLE IN Q. R. F. U. FIXTURE 8-6

Game Was Played on a Snow Covered Field, and Was One Dispute After Another—Ottawa Team Now in Section Finals For the Championship of the Quebec Union—Meets Westmount Team Next Saturday.

The Ottawa Seconds just managed to win out over the Brockville Seconds at Lansdowne Park on Saturday afternoon. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.

The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another. The game was played on a snow-covered field, and was one dispute after another.