

CAPITALS OUTPLAY WESTMINSTER SQUAD

Jack D'Easum Stars But Gets
Poor Support and Royals
Lose, 16-3.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 13.—Victoria showed their superiority over New Westminster in a Big Four rugby game played at Queens Park this afternoon, when the Capitals registered 16 points to the Royals 3.

Failure to know the signals was responsible for the Royals being on the lean end of the score. Jack d'Easum, who played quarterback, put up a whale of a game but failed to get much support except from Bourne and Eddie Olson. Tip Robertson also put up a nice game but marred his display by foul tactics and was twice penalized, once when the Royals were on the two-yard line.

Horne scored the first touchdown for Victoria in the first period. Hunnings repeated in the second stanza while McMurchie, quarter-back for Victoria, went over the line for the third touchdown which was converted. Jack d'Easum kicked a field goal for the Royals with six minutes to go and the Westminsters put on a great spurt to even up the count. McMurchie, with only a minute to play, sailed over the line for the final tally for Victoria which was converted.

Eddie Olson put up a great exhibition and although lacking in speed, made the best gains for the losers. The tackling of Olson and Bobby Bourne were the features of an otherwise listless game.
