

OPENING GAME TO VANCOUVER

Victoria Beaten 12-6 in Canadian Rugby Game

VICTORIA, Oct. 8.—U. C. T., Victoria's representatives in the "Big Four" Canadian Rugby league, went down to a 12-6 defeat at the hands of Vancouver Saturday afternoon in the opening game played at the Royal Athletic park.

The visitors scored in each quarter, getting a rouge in the first and second sessions and a touchdown in the third and final quarters. Victoria netted a rouge in the second stanza and a touchdown about five minutes before time.

There were several minor injuries, and Harry Seed of the Vancouver squad was taken to the hospital, but he was only shaken up.
