

Calgary Tigers Tangle With Eskimos Here Today

Management of Aggregation From the South Changed
Mind After Calling the Fixture Off and Insisted
That Game Be Played

After indulging in a little game of on again, off again with the management of the Eskimo rugby club, which ended in the on again faction of the Calgary executive winning the toss, Wally Sterling's band of Tigers arrived in the city late last night and this afternoon will clash with Deacon White's Eskimo gridders in a scheduled A.R.F.U. fixture at Renfrew park commencing at 3:00 o'clock sharp.
