LONDON, Ont., Oct. 6. — Balmy Beach of the eastern senior O.R.F.U. defeated Western University 5 to 1 in an exhibition football game at J. W. Little Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon that was featured by a free-for-all fight in the fourth quarter.

FEELING RUNS HIGH

Feeling ran high and it was far from being merely an exhibition game from the players point of view. Tackling was of a severe type and Crowhurst, one of Toronto's leading players, was carried off the field in the fourth quarter.

Western gave the Beachers plenty of opposition despite the fact four of their regular linemen were missing owing to injuries. Two rouges a safety touch and kick to the deadline gave Toronto their first points. In the first half Western held the visitors to a one all tie.

The safety touch was a result of a fluke. When the ball was snapped to Armstrong it bounded over his head and he was forced over his own goal line by attacking wings. A 30-yard run by Kirkland featured the play for the winners while Harris and McKenzie turned in a bright performance on the back-field. For Western Reg. Armstrong was much the best booter. Ted Kennedy and Paul Hauch were the scorers for Western. The free for all fight found players from both teams mixing it freely while the subs rushed from their benches to join in the small riot. There were no penalties imposed for the battle although the officials threaten to bring the matter before the two respective unions.
