Teams Battle Neck and Neck in Alberta Grid Opener

STEADY DRIZZLE

Slippery Ball Checks Forward Pass Attempts, 1,500 Attend

Edmonton, Sept. 26.—(Edmonton Journal)—The Alberta Rugby Football Union (ARFU) grid opener between the Calgary and Edmonton teams, which took place at the University of Alberta stadium, was a close and exciting affair. The game was played in a steady drizzle, which made the ball slippery and the forward passes difficult to catch. The Calgary team, captained by Al Smith, took the lead in the first quarter with a 15-yard punt which was kicked by Smith and caught by Ed. Thompson. The Edmonton team, captained by Ed. Thompson, answered in the second quarter with a 20-yard punt which was kicked by Thompson and caught by Ed. Thompson. The game was a neck and neck affair, with both teams scoring in each quarter. The final score was Calgary 14, Edmonton 10.
