

'Lomas Just Out for a Romp Against North Shore Tonight

There's a humorous little scene being unfolded in the Big Four Canadian Football League today, as Meralomas and North Shore prepare to meet in the first of a two-game Varsity "benefit" series, at Athletic Park.

You see, there are two games left to play in this season's schedule, and both of them involve North Shore Lions. Their opposition is to be furnished first by Meralomas and then by Knights of Columbus. Varsity, which plays fewer games than the rest, must depend on a victory by either Caseys or 'Lomas for the league title.

But Meralomas don't want to play that way.

Last night at a meeting the Kitsies decided to go through with their game, but they don't give a red cent for the score.

"We just want to have some fun, and to have a good time playing the Lions," said Coach Stu Fraser. "We don't care about the score. We're pointing to next season."

So while Meralomas are having some fun and pointing to next year, the Varsity men are chewing their fingers to the bone and praying that someone will beat the Lions. Their best bet, it seems, appears to be the Casey squad, which meets the Lions Saturday, and which claims—and has been claiming for two months—that it can lick both Varsity and North Shore on the same day.

Meralomas and Lions will have practically no changes in their lineups. The 'Lomas lose only Max Turner, who broke a rib last outing.

Game time is 8 o'clock.

INDIANAPOLIS.—Ray Eckert, St. Louis, downed Tommy O'Toole, Arizona, last night, two falls.
