THIS WEEK along the Senior O.R.F.U. battle front will find Sarnia Imperials playing at Peterborough and Balmy Beach entertaining Montreal Westmounts in Toronto.

Fighting desperately for a place in the playoffs, the Imperials, so Operative 37 tells us, are primed to take care of the Orfuns. In the only meeting to date between the clubs, the Tunnel City representatives marched off with a 32-2 decision. Playing away from home, the Imperials may not be able to do as well tomorrow but they should have little trouble winning.

The feature contest, of course, will be that between Balmy Beach and Montreal. The Westmounts have yet to taste defeat and a Balmy Beach victory would assure a playoff between the Beachers and Westmounts, leaving Imperials out in the cold.

In the first meeting of the clubs Westmounts eked out a 10-9 decision on their home field. On that basis the teams are so well matched that the one getting the breaks will win.

For no good reason, except that we have a hunch they are due for some luck, we'll ride with Balmy Beach.
