1995 GAME REVIEWS - WEEK #2

TUESDAY JULY 4 - BIRMINGHAM BARACUDAS 38 AT WINNIPEG BLUE BOMBERS 10 - 22,208

22,208 fans packed Winnipeg Stadium for their home opener. With former Blue Bomber Matt Dunigan on the sidelines for Birmingham, they were looking to trounce the 'Cudas for their first win of the season. Birmingham had other plans. In their first ever CFL regular season half the 'Cudas scored four touchdowns and one field goal. Birmingham defensive back Andre Strode opened the scoring at 5:34 of the first quarter intercepting a Sammy Garza pass and returning it for a touchdown. Two minutes and thirty-three seconds later QB Jimmy Klingler and WR Jason Phillips connected for a 96 yard passing touchdown. The 'Cudas defense again opened the door when DE Donovan Gans recovered a Garza fumble. With forty seconds left in the first quarter, the 'Cudas capitalized on the turnover and scored their third touchdown of the game. CB Junior Thurman continued Birmingham's domination on defense by intercepting a Garza pass and returning it 61 yards for a touchdown. K Franco Grilla, who had already converted all four Birmingham touchdowns, finished off the first half scoring binge with a twenty-three yard field goal at 14:23. Winnipeg managed to get on the board 4:06 into the second half with a 39 yard Troy Westwood field goal. Much of the rest of the third quarter was a defensive battle with no scoring until Blue Bomber punter Bob Cameron scored a single with 1:04 left in the quarter. Winnipeg got their first passing TD of the season and only their second touchdown of any kind when Garza hit Allan Boyko with a three yard pass. The 'Cudas scored twice more as P Scott Player booted a single and Klingler hooked up with WR Derrick Crawford for a three yard touchdown pass. The Baracudas recorded their first ever regular season win in their first CFL game in decisive fashion 38-10.

THURSDAY JULY 6 - OTTAWA ROUGHRIDERS 24 AT TORONTO ARGONAUTS 37 - 18,404

It was guaranteed win night at the Skydome in Toronto. Toronto head coach Mike Faragalli told fans his Argonauts would win the game or they would be given free tickets to their Labour Day match against San Antonio. At game time it looked like a win might be hard to come by with starting quarterback Kent Austin out with a pulled calf muscle. However, fans looking for the free tickets were disappointed as the Argos came out ahead of the Eastern Riders 37 to 24. Ottawa got on the board first late in the first quarter when QB Danny Barrett threw a nine yard pass to RB Michael Richardson. The Argos opened the second half with a 61 yard touchdown bomb from QB Erik White to WR Derrick Branch. RB Reggie Barnes broke the tie with a 2 yard touchdown run. With 2:05 left in the first half Wayne Lammle, who converted both Argo TDs, split the upright from 34 yards out to give Toronto a 17-7 lead. White threw his second touchdown pass of the game to Jock Climie. Lammle kicked the convert after the 49 yard scoring play to give the Argos a 24-7 lead at half time. Ottawa was first to score in the second half when Richardson capitalized on a 24 yard pass interference call with a 1 yard touchdown run. Barnes notched his second rushing TD with a 1 yard run 3:04 into the fourth quarter. Ottawa picked up three more points as kicker Terry Baker missed a 27 yard field goal for a single and Toronto kicker Wayne Lammle conceded a safety. Ottawa continued their come back with Richardson scoring his third touchdown of the game on a 40 yard pass from Barrett. The play was converted by Baker. The Argos put the game out of reach with fifty-four seconds left in the game as Barnes recorded his second rushing touchdown of the game from 2 yards out. The 18,404 fans left Skydome with mixed feelings - the first win of the season but no free tickets.

FRIDAY JULY 7 - EDMONTON ESKIMOS 26 AT SASKATCHEWAN ROUGH RIDERS 19 (OT) - 23,584

Field goals were the play of the day as 24 of the 45 points scored were by field goal. 23,584 fans watched a barn burner that included a 36 minute game delay due to a severe lightning and thunderstorm. The Roughriders went into this game looking for their first win of the season after losing badly to Hamilton last week. On the other hand, the Eskimos were looking to continue their winning ways after beating Toronto last week. K Sean Fleming opened the scoring for the Eskimos on a 52 yard field goal. The Western Riders fought back with a Tom Burgess 1 yard touchdown run to give Riders a 7-3 lead at the end of the first quarter. The second quarter was all K Dave Ridgeway. He booted three field goals from 36, 51, and 25 yards out to give Edmonton a 16-3 lead at halftime. The third quarter belonged to the Saskatchewan kicker Sean Flemming who helped the Riders get back in the game with two field goals of 40 and 20 yards. Saskatchewan tied the game 2:12 into the fourth quarter on a 100-yard passing play between Sammy Vargas and Lucius Floyd. The kickers exchanged field goals to make the score tied at nineteen after regulation time. The first overtime half saw Edmonton control the play scoring a touchdown on a 1-yard Vargas run with 0:44 seconds left in the half. Saskatchewan had a chance to move the ball in the second half of the overtime but could not score. The result, Edmonton leaves the game with a perfect 2-0 record after an exciting, long game. Willie Pless again proved why he is the all-time defensive tackle leader by recording 12 more.

FRIDAY JULY 7 - B.C. LIONS 31 AT MEMPHIS MAD DOGS 13 - 14,278

The Mad Dogs home opener in the Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium had the potential to be an exciting match against the B.C. Lions. However, the 'beware of dogs' sign hung out front last week after a close loss to Calgary did not seem to intimidate B.C. They came to the Liberty Bowl fully intending to leave with a 2-0 record. B.C. dominated the first half scoring with touchdowns by Cory Philpot running in from the 3, Stephan Ptasek on a 20 yard pass, and Darren Flutie on a 32 yard pass. Memphis got on the board in the first half with a single from a missed field goal and a made field goal from the 40 yard line. The score at the end of the first half was B.C. 20 - Memphis 4. Memphis opened the scoring in the second half with Damon Allen throwing the second franchise touchdown pass to Eddie Brown. The play went 32 yards and was converted by Peter Gardere. The Mad Dogs scored the next two points of the game as Chris Gardner missed two field goals from 49 and 51 yards. Cory Philpot recorded his second rushing touchdown of the game on a 10 yard run. Lui Passaglia added to his all-time point leading total with his third convert of the game and a 16 yard field goal to round out the scoring. B.C. managed to maintain their perfect record beating the Memphis Mad Dogs 31 to 13 before 14, 278 in the first franchise home game.

SATURDAY, JULY 8 - CALGARY STAMPEDERS 48 AT SHREVEPORT PIRATES 17 - 14,026

The heavily favored Calgary Stampeders needed 7:42 to put their first points on the board. Last year's league MVP Doug Flutie threw a 14 yard pass to his favorite receiver Allen Pitts for a touchdown. K Mark McLoughlin scored the first of six converts for the night. McLoughlin made good on a 52 yard field goal to start the second quarter scoring. Shreveport got on the board when Billy Joe Tolliver threw a 50 yard touchdown pass to WR Wayne Walker. Bjorn Nittmo made good on the convert to make the game 10 to 7 for the Stampeders. Flutie ran in the next Calgary TD on his own from the Shreveport 2 yard line. Minutes later Nittmo hit a 42 yard field goal to bring Shreveport within a touchdown of Calgary. Before the end of the quarter Flutie threw his second TD pass of the game to Pitts from the 6 yard line. With the convert the score at the end of the first half - Calgary 24, Shreveport 10. Calgary continued to dominate the game in the second half out scoring Shreveport 24 to 7. ATURDAY, JULY 8, 1995 - BIRMINGHAM BARRACUDAS 13 AS AT HAMILTON TIGER-CATS 31 - 23,042

It was the home season curtain raiser at Ivor Wynne Stadium in Hamilton and the 23,042 rabid fans in attendance went home happy as their hometown Tabbies defeated the Barracudas by a 31-13 score. A Franco Grilla single and Paul Osbaldiston 51-yard FG was all the 1st quarter scoring before things opened up in the second. At 4:40 of the 2nd period, QB Jimmy Klingler hit WR Marcus Grant a 86-yard TD pass. The Grilla convert gave the 'Cudas their only lead of the game. Just under 4 minutes later, Hamilton QB Anthonly Calvillo scrimmaged from Birmingham's 10-yard line and found a wide-open SB Frank Marof. The Osbaldiston convert made the score 11-10. Osbaldiston widened the gap with a 29-yard FG at 12:04. Hamilton, for all intensive purposes, put the game away as WR Earl Winfield hooked up with Calvillo for a 5-yard TD pass. Osbaldiston once again added the convert making the score 21-10 at half-time. The two teams traded third quarter FG's before RB Kalin Hall scored his only TD of the game, a 1-yard plunge. The Osbaldiston convert made the final 31-13 in favour of Hamilton upping their record to 2-0 and dropping the Barracudas to 1-1.

SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1995 - SAN ANTONIO TEXANS 24 AT BALITMORE STALLIONS 50 - 31,016

It was a historic evening at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium last week. For starters it was the first game for Baltimore fans to cheer on the Stallions and it also marked the first visit for the Texans to Maryland. In the end, it was the Stallions prevailing by a 50-24 score. The two teams traded FG to open up the game and then at 3:22 of the 2nd quarter, Baltimore K Carlos Huerta added his second of five FG on the day, this one from 14 yards away. San Antonio captured their only lead on the day as QB David Archer hooked up with RB Mike Saunders for a 46-yard passing TD. The Roman Anderson convert made the score 10-6 in favour of the Texans. This lead was short lived however as Stallion QB Tracy Ham and WR Robert Clark connected for a 18-yard TD at 10:40 of the second. Just over three minutes later, Ham found WR Chris Armstrong alone in the end zone for a 26-yard major. Huerta's convert made the score 20-10 in favour of the Stallions. Baltimore was not done there as DB Chris Wright corralled a punt and returned it 69 yards for the score with just 45 seconds remaining in the half. The half-time score read, Baltimore 27, San Antonio 10. A Carlos Huerta 38-yard FG opened up the second half scoring before the Texans replies with Saunders scoring his second TD of the game, this on a 1-yard run. The Anderson convert trimmed the Stallions' lead to just 13. Ham then put the game out of reach for good going over from 1-yard out at 13:12 of the 3rd quarter. Huerta opened up the 4th quarter scoring with a pair of FG's (51 and 28 yards). Clark then rounded out the Baltimore scoring snagging a 5-yard Ham pass for his second major of the day 14:35. San Antonio scored on the final play of the game as Kralik hauled in a 27-yard pass from Archer for the major. The Anderson convert made the final 50-24 for the Stallions.
